Explore and sled the Meander River

Are you ready for an epic adventure? Our Meander Wilderness adventure is an experience for the students like no other.

Sled the Meander River, unleashing your inner thrill seeker. Our course takes on the white water of the Meander River, enough thrill to keep everyone engaged and excited, without being too intense - perfect for all abilities.

Get your students out into the playground, the wilderness playground. Experience the unique bushland of Northern Tasmania and its local insights, knowledge and experiences.

Explore the bushland while learning about its unique geology and historical significance to the Tasmanian Aboriginal community.

At Meander Wilderness Experiences we'll curate a unique experience to suit your students, the curriculum and your needs. From start to finish, school gate and back, we'll be on a wilderness adventure.

Boost engagement, excitement and interest in the local community with a fun and engaging experience.

Our specially trained guides are on hand at all times keeping everyone safe and having the time of their lives on the water.

How long is the tour?

We can adjust it to your needs. This is a basic itinerary:

0900 Pick up from school

1000 Arrive at Meander

30 Kids go sledding

30 Kids bush walk and experience the historical and geological region.

1200 Lunch then the groups swap over

1400 Head back to school

1500 Dropped back to school

Sledding activities are not weather dependant and adjustments to the adventures can be made in the case of bad wind and rain.

What do we need to bring?

All the equipment you need for your day on the Meander River will be supplied, but be sure to pack:

Warm clothing to change into at the end of the tour

A towel

If you wear glasses we strongly advise you use contacts if possible

Students to bring their own lunch and snacks

What does it cost?

Approximate cost: *adjusted to suit each school (minimum 60 kids)

Base cost $50 / student

With guided walk $55 / student

Indigenous education $8 / student

Meander Wilderness Experiences is showcasing the Meander Valley area to schools. Our first river sledding season saw over 460 people go down the river. It's the perfect experience for school kids aged 12+, combining bushwalking, curriculum-based activities on geology, biology, problem solving and indigenous education. We look forward to working directly with you to create a unique offering just for your school and students.
